On May 19, 2015, the Court stayed proceedings in this matter until March 7, 2016, and ordered the parties to submit status reports or briefing schedules on that date. ECF No. 50. Accordingly, the parties respectfully and jointly request that the Court continue its stay in this matter for an additional seven days. Should the Court grant this motion, the parties will submit status reports and/or proposed briefing schedules by March 14, 2016.
